

My Journey Option Subjects Info Sheet

GRAPHICAL COMMUNICATIONS

Option Subject:

Kindly indicate route offered:

Applied: _____

Academic: X

Vocational: _____

General introduction to the subject:

Graphical Communication is described as an international language because with the use of drawing, one can surmount any language barrier. This subject is mainly composed of practical draughting tasks, where students explore a wide variety of communication skills related to design.

List topics studied:

- Geometry
- Pictorial drawing
- Orthographic projection
- Design graphics
- Solid geometry

Class activities involved:

- Problem solving through drawing on A3 paper
- Hands-on practical modelling tasks

Homework assigned:

- Homework as a continuation of class work
- Special homework that enables students to tackle problems related to particular areas in depth
- Project work that challenges students to explore new and original ideas

Assessment given:

- Class tests
- Timed tasks
- Group work
- Project work

List skills acquired studying the subject:

- Presentation & Neatness
- Draughting dexterity
- Spatial Awareness
- Psychomotor Coordination

List skills required to study the subject:

- Mathematical skills
- Artistic/creativity skills
- Problem solving skills

Name of HOD: Mr. Marvin Hili, Mr. Anton Zahra, HoDs

Email address : marvin.hili@ilearn.edu.mt

anton.zahra@ilearn.edu.mt

